

Arrest Made In Attempted Arson Case

KC Man Denies Placing Boxes In Local Building

Frank John Amaro, Kansas City, was arrested this morning on a state warrant for attempted arson in connection with an attempt to set fire to the Gordon Building Sunday.

Amaro, also known as Johnny Green, surrendered to Kansas City police after learning he was being sought.

The warrant was issued by Pettis County Prosecuting Attorney J. R. Fritz, and delivered to Kansas City authorities Tuesday night by Sheriff Emmett Fairfax.

Amaro denied he had anything to do with planting some 75 gallons of gasoline in a third floor room of the Gordon Building.

Detectives said Amaro was identified from police photographs by several Sedalia residents as one of two men who were seen wheeling cardboard boxes into the office building Saturday afternoon.

Fifteen cardboard boxes with plastic liners filled with gasoline were found Sunday in the building. A burning fuse attached to one of the boxes was extinguished by firemen.

BULLETIN

Amaro appeared before Magistrate Louis Mazuch in Kansas City before noon Wednesday and was released under a $5,000 bond pending his appearance in Sedalia on March 1, before Magistrate Frank T. Armstrong.

Amaro denied any involvement in the attempted arson under which he is charged, "what-so-ever."

The Gordon structure houses three retail stores on the first floor and has about 50 rooms on the second and third floors.

The arson attempt was discovered when a couple working in an office noticed fluid dripping from the ceiling.

Amaro, an employee of the Bruno Bonding Co., is awaiting trial in Kansas City on a charge of receiving stolen property. He and companion were arrested last summer attempting to load six electric fans into a car. The fans had been stolen earlier from a high school building.

Immunization Bill Sent To State House

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—A bill to require the immunization of all school children against poliomyelitis, smallpox and diphtheria was introduced in the House today.

It was offered by Rep. James G. Trimble, D-Clay County, majority floor leader. He said it was requested by the state Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Children of persons whose religious beliefs bar them from using the services of doctors or osteopaths would be exempted from the proposed law.

Trimble also introduced a bill to make state income tax deductions the same as for the federal income tax. He said it was intended to simplify employer records if the withholding system of collecting the income tax is enacted.

Marsha Brown Crowned Queen Of Heart Fund

Marsha Brown, daughter of Mrs. Naomi Brown, 1510 South Montevue, was crowned Queen of Hearts for 1961 at the heart fund benefit skating party held Tuesday night at Tony's Roller Rink.

She was crowned by Diane Atkinson, last year's queen.

The skating party netted approximately $350 for the heart drive, officials said. This was the first year for the skating party.

Princesses were Patricia Sacco and Linda Olhrich. The queen's attendants were Lucy Lockett, Nancy Evans, Judy Scott, Delores Geiser, Janet Landes and Kathy Couhig. Each attendant received a gift, presented by several local merchants.

Boyle Is Elected To Chamber Helm

Sam E. Boyle, 601 South Beacon, was elected president of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of the board of directors. Boyle was born in Sedalia and grew up here. After finishing school he went to work for Swift and Company and through promotions with the company left Sedalia, returning here a few years ago as manager of the Sedalia plant. Boyle recently retired from Swift and Co. His wife, Fay, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wilks, 116 East Broadway.

P. Cecil Owen, who has served the past two years as second vice-president was elected first vice-president. Jack Shoemaker was elected second vice president, Mrs. Vivian Warren was re-elected as treasurer.

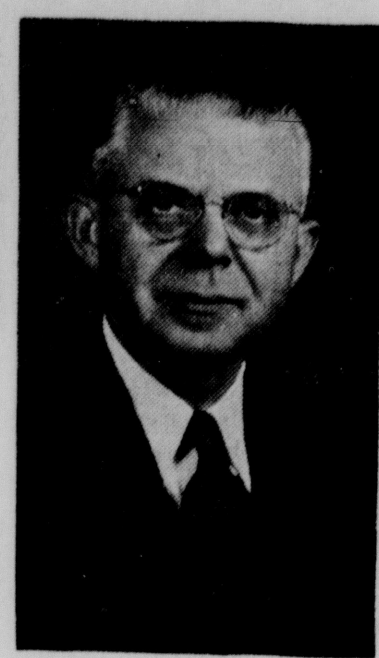

James S. Simon was elected a director to fill the vacancy on the board through Boyle's election to the presidency. Simon will serve as director during Boyle's unexpired term of one year.

Another important event that transpired at the meeting Tuesday afternoon was burning of a note (Mock) on the Chamber of Commerce building. The building was purchased ten years ago for $20,000, during the presidency of A. W. Haller. Virgil Herrick, who was then a member of the board, and is now serving again as a director recalled that this step was taken with some misgivings and a great deal of debate.

Some of the citizens of the town loaned the money and have been paid back in full, with interest. The payments have been made twice a year, Feb. 15, and Aug. 15, with the Chamber never missing a payment during the ten years. The last checks were mailed Wednesday morning. The building was purchased June, 1951, but the Chamber didn't move in until September 1951.

There were also donations made for the building and for remodeling it. An air conditioning unit was installed and that, along with remodeling of every kind, is completely paid for. Mrs. Warren, treasurer of the chamber and office manager, was on a special committee of the chamber at that time to help raise the money for the building.

May Spur Federal Spending

JFK Reportedly Plans Speedup To Reduce Lag

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Kennedy is reportedly planning to announce tonight a speedup in spending of some federal funds in a fresh effort to spur the lagging economy and reduce unemployment.

Informed officials said they understood the President intends to make such an announcement at his news conference scheduled for 7 p.m. EST. The conference will be broadcast live on nationwide television and radio.

On the international front, Kennedy faces questioning about his views on the crises in the Congo and in the United Nations resulting from the assassination of deposed Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba. Heightening the tension are Soviet demands that the matter be dealt with on Soviet terms.

There was no immediate word regarding details, but the Kennedy plans are reported to call for issuing new administrative orders to a few federal agencies for spending money faster than planned on some government programs.

Indications are that such speedier spending would not be on any massive scale. The idea is to pump some additional money into the economy, pending congressional consideration of the Kennedy legislative program, aimed at business recovery, easing of unemployment hardship and reduction of joblessness.

Administration officials and Democratic congressional leaders clearly are becoming increasingly concerned about the recession.

Both Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg and House Speaker Sam Rayburn have indicated that mounting concern starts at the top, with Kennedy. The Cabinet officer and the speaker have told reporters that the President will have something to say about the situation at his meeting with newsmen.

Live Conference By the President Is Set Tonight

NEW YORK (AP)—All three major television networks plan live coverage of President Kennedy's news conference tonight.

The Columbia Broadcasting System, which earlier had said it would rebroadcast the 7:30 p.m. EST conference at a later hour, said Tuesday night it had changed its mind.

The network cited "overriding reason" for the change—the situation in the Congo following the death of ex-Premier Lumumba, and the announcement that Kennedy will make a major statement on the nation's economy.

The news conference also will be carried live on NBC and ABC radio, and rebroadcast by the CBA radio network at 8:15 p.m.

Seeks Nod To Extend Benefits

Goldberg Foresees More Unemployed On the Horizon

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg estimated today that three million more Americans will suffer long-term unemployment in the next 13 months and urged Congress to pass swiftly President Kennedy's bill to extend jobless benefits.

Goldberg testified before the House Ways and Means Committee as the administration opened its drive for enactment of its economic package. The measure picked for that effort is the one generally considered to have the least opposition. It would provide federal funds for extension, up to 13 weeks, of unemployment benefits to those who have used up their rights under existing law.

As the hearing got under way the Republicans ran up new storm signals for the whole program, assailing what they called "Democratic gloom-and-doom distortions."

The GOP national committee publication "Battle Line" labeled as a major political exaggeration a statement by House Speaker Sam Rayburn that the need to do something about unemployment is "the most urgent since the Great Depression."

Some Moisture May Be On Tap For Missouri

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Unseasonably mild temperatures are expected to continue in Missouri but some moisture soon may be on the scene.

Increased cloudiness with a chance for showers is in the forecast for the state, except in the northwest. By Friday the weatherman says there may be snow or rain in the northwest and showers elsewhere.

Temperatures are expected to continue 5 to 10 degrees above the average through next Monday.

US Skating Team In Air Disaster

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—Fifty-four Americans, including the entire U.S. figure skating team perished today in the flaming crash of a Sabena Belgian Airlines jet. In all, the crash of the American-built Boeing 707 brought death to 73 persons.

Disaster struck at 10:05 a.m. as the $5-million plane, its engines suddenly sounding odd, sought a landing in bright sunshine after a flight from New York.

The huge plane slammed to earth beside a woods three miles north of Brussels International Airport and went up in flames fed by fuel oil as the tanks exploded one by one.

All 61 passengers and the crew of 11 died. A Belgian farmer tilling his cabbage patch was struck and killed.

Mrs. Maribel Vinson Owen, 49, of Winchester, Mass., nine times the U.S. figure skating champion, was killed along with two daughters who were members of the current team. The girls were Laurence Owen, 16, and Maribel Owen, 20. Mrs. Owen last weekend had seen Laurence win the North American championships at Philadelphia.

Mrs. Owen and Coach Deane McMinn of Lomita, Calif., were accompanying the 18-member U.S. team to world figure skating championships in Prague, Czechoslovakia.

The team is the fifth major sports group wiped out by plane crashes in a dozen years, including soccer teams of Italy, Britain and Denmark. Sixteen members of the California Poly football team were killed in the crash of a chartered plane last Oct. 29 at Toledo, Ohio.

The Boeing crashed in a small pond and started burning almost at once. Fire engines previously alerted because of its erratic behavior screamed toward the scene, but arrived only in time to check the spread of fire.

"There were no survivors," a fire officer said.

Charred bodies were removed to a temporary morgue at the airport. A Belgian farm laborer lost a leg and was hospitalized. Debris from the terribly twisted Boeing was scattered for several hundred yards.

The nightmare evolved from Sabena's Flight 548 from New York, piloted by Cmdr. Louis Lambrechts.

Passengers aboard the Liege-Brussels train, which skirts the airport area, were among the witnesses of the disaster. One of them said the plane did not appear to have its wheels down.

The Belgian government immediately began an investigation. The chief investigating magistrate, M. Charles, said that the plane had had no contact with the control tower.

Ragtime Marker Erection Plans Near Complete

The granite marker paying tribute to Scott Joplin, composer of the Maple Leaf Rag, the first "rag" to sell more than a million copies, and the foundation for all popular music, written in Sedalia; to John Stark, publisher of the rag in Sedalia; and two other Sedalians who contributed to the ragtime music, with compositions, Arthur Marshall and Scott Hayden, is ready to be erected and plans are now being drawn for the base, according to Harlan Snow, chairman of the Scott Joplin Memorial Fund committee.

This marker, of simple design, which will stand six or seven feet, depending on the base, will be placed at the edge of the parking lot at Main and Lamine, at the place where the Maple Leaf Club stood. It was there that Joplin composed the rag which he named for the club, and where he was playing it when Stark happened by and heard it.

The marker was purchased through the efforts of the Scott Joplin Memorial Fund committee with proceeds from the Bob Darsch concert.

The committee was appointed by William C. Hopkins, outgoing president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Snow was elected by the committee as chairman.

The office of the Pettis County Recorder will be closed until about 10:30 a.m. Thursday, in order for employees to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lillian Gilliam.

Mrs. Gilliam was the mother of Mrs. Naomi Brown, deputy recorder.

Congo Crisis

UNITED NATIONS — U. S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson says Soviet Union declares war on U. N. with resolution on Congo; Lumumba supporters in Security Council gallery disrupt session.

CAIRO — Mobs set afire the Belgian embassy and stoned U. S. and British embassies; Marine guard hurt. This is fifth Belgian embassy attacked in three days.

WASHINGTON — Threat of U. S.-Soviet crisis arises as Kennedy administration tests foreign policy.

Calls Soviet Move War Against UN

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson today denounced the Soviet Union's latest Congo move as a "declaration of war against the United Nations."

The United States, he said, does not intend to stand by idly while others cause trouble in the Congo. Stevenson addressed a tense meeting of the U.N. Security Council which was disrupted by the worst public demonstration in the history of the world organization. It took 15 minutes to clear the public galleries and restore order.

The demonstrators, about 10 Negro supporters of slain Congolese leader Patrice Lumumba, forced their way into the galleries through a back door and interrupted Stevenson's speech with shouts of "vive (long live) Lumumba." Fighting broke out when the guards tried to expel the demonstrators.

He spoke out firmly against a Soviet resolution calling for the withdrawal of U.N. forces from the Congo within one month. The Security Council, he said, must rally its strength behind Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld to prevent any weakening of the U.N. role.

"Does this council favor abandoning security for insecurity and anarchy?" he asked. "Does the Soviet government really want Africans to kill Africans? The United States does not and it devoutly hopes the Soviet Union does not."

He said of the Soviet resolution: "This resolution is a declaration of war on the United Nations and on the principle of international action in behalf of peace."

Turning to the Soviet attack on Hammarskjöld, the U.S. ambassador said:

"To attempt to discredit the secretary-general would not only wreck the U.N. mission in the Congo but would dangerously weaken the United Nations itself."

Addressing the Soviet delegate directly, Stevenson declared: "We believe the only way to take the cold war out of the Congo is to keep the United Nations in the Congo and we call on the Soviet Union to join in assuring the free exercise of the right of the Congo people to democracy."

Same As Current Year

School Tax Rate Okayed by Board

On recommendation of Superintendent Thomas J. Norris, the Sedalia Board of Education at its regular meeting Tuesday night approved a total $2.82 tax rate for the school year 1961-1962, the same rate as for the current school year.

The levy is broken down as follows: $1.37 to be submitted to the voters in the April election; $1 to be levied by the Board at its April meeting; and 45 cents to be levied by the Board at its April meeting for the sinking and interest funds.

The Board selected William F. Brown as the attorney to prepare the necessary resolutions in connection with the April school election—the levy and election of Board members. (The terms of Charles Hurtt and Edward Kehde expire this year.)

It was brought out at the meeting that $300,000 in government bonds—this is a part of the $1,665,000 school bond money invested by the board until such time as it is needed in the building program—mature Tuesday, at approximately $6,000 profit to the board. It was decided to re-invest $200,000 in bonds, which will mature in August. This leaves some $245,000 on hand for use during the summer.

The board has been authorized $5,122 under Title III in matching funds for expenditures during the year to improve facilities for teaching math, science and foreign languages. It was decided, however, that the board will not use the total amount this year.

In listing planned expenditures under Title III, P. A. Sillers included some film projectors, microscopes, record players and microprojectors, at a total estimated expenditure of $7,700. The Board would pay half of this amount, with the remainder paid under Title III.

The Board approved the employment of William F. Brown as attorney for the Board in acquiring land adjoining the site for the Heber U. Hunt Elementary school in west Sedalia. The Board further approved, in the list of bills to be paid, a $15 fee for filing condemnation proceedings against this property.

The suit had not been filed in Circuit Court Wednesday. Superintendent Norris, in view of the new and improved school cafeterias, opened a discussion on the use of school cafeterias by outside organizations. It was decided that organizations will be allowed to use the cafeterias, according to Board policy, on condition that at least one regular cafeteria employee is on hand to see that the equipment is taken care of.

1st Lt. James Braden, industrial arts teacher, was authorized a two-week leave of absence without pay to attend a National Guard school. Braden is Detachment Commander of the 35th Administration Company, Missouri Army National Guard, stationed in Sedalia.

End of a Contract

Strange Singapore Fever

Common Cold, Uncommon Climates Get Health Focus

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Common colds, uncommon climates and a strange fever in Singapore turn the focus on health:

What's in a Cold?

The trouble with the common cold is that the only things common about it are the symptoms. Any of a handful of known viruses and bacteria can cause the common misery of the common cold.

But no cause—either bacteria or virus—has been identified for at least 80 per cent of the common sporadic diseases seen in adults, says Dr. Alfred S. Evans of the University of Wisconsin.

Bacteria are responsible for only some 5 to 7 per cent of respiratory diseases, he says in an article entitled, "Sneezes, Wheezes and Other Diseases." Flu viruses and adenoviruses, prevalent among military recruits, account for less than 13 per cent of such illness in adults.

Weather to Live

Your health, good or bad, may be made by the weather—in spite of coats, radiators, air-conditioning, medicine and all.

Researchers find strange correlations between climate and disease.

Colds reach a peak in winter, and in stormy climates with changing temperatures and pressures.

Digestive disorders are most frequent in hot climates and in hot summer months.

More diabetes is found in winter—and in winter insulin requirements increase.

Skin infections increase in summer, and in high temperature and humidity. Skin cancer is most prevalent in the sunny south.

Multiple sclerosis occurs most often in cool climates and in spring and fall weather changes.

Fever in Singapore

An epidemic of fever broke out in Singapore last summer, striking all races and ages.

Fever ran as high as 104 degrees. Immediate symptoms were headache, severe body aches and vomiting. Patients usually recovered in a week.

But the disease had another strange effect: Patients broke out in patches of bleeding rash. Small blood vessels became more fragile, and there was a decrease in the blood's ability to clot.

Against Blood Fat

A new drug to lower levels of cholesterol or fat in the blood can be prescribed in Canada to aid heart disease victims.

The drug, which has the trade name, Cholestin, is derived from thyroid hormones, and lowers cholesterol, the waxy substance some doctors believe collects on the inner walls of blood vessels, causing blocking of the arteries and heart attack.

It may be used on men as young as 24 with high cholesterol levels as protection against future heart or brain catastrophes, says Dr. Campbell Moses of the University of Pittsburgh.

Fluoride Lozenge

A new lozenge aimed at lessening tooth decay is available by prescription. It contains sodium fluoride and is for use in areas where fluorides are not at a level deemed sufficient to inhibit dental decay.

The lozenge which has the trade name Enzifur, acts by applying fluoride directly to the teeth, and perhaps by dietary means, the manufacturer says.

Coogan Hearing Delayed by Mumps

MALIBU, Calif. (AP)—Actor Jack Coogan's preliminary hearing on a narcotics charge will be delayed until March 1 because another case took precedence—a case of the mumps.

The hearing which started last week, was postponed when it was reported that Coogan had the mumps.

Coogan, 46, and Nona Carver, 40, onetime dancer, were arrested Jan. 7. Sheriff's officers said they found marijuana in the actor's Malibu home and in Miss Carver's car parked nearby.

TO SPEAK — Dr. Harry Stoeckle, Associate Professor of Pediatrics, University of Missouri, will speak Monday, Feb. 20, at 8 p.m. at the Little Theater, Smith-Cotton High School, in support of the Pettis County Heart Fund. The public is invited to attend. Dr. Stoeckle has been at MU one year and prior to this held a similar post at the Texas Medical Branch at Galveston, Tex.

Wildwood Church Now a Religious City Corporation

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The "Church in the Wildwood" has been changed to a religious corporation in the city, says Dr. W. Clark Ezzley, chairman of the Department of Marriage and The Home at Stephens College for women in Columbia, Mo.

Dr. Ezzley told the annual meeting of the National Council of Churches' Division of Christian Education Tuesday he deplored destructive changes wrought by the "20th century revolution" but hailed its constructive features.

On the good side, he said, the revolution has forced the church from an emotionally motivated to a learned ministry.

But, he complained: "Saving souls is shoved aside in behalf of organization and co-operation in accomplishing the church's tasks. The spiritual has given way to a secular emphasis."

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Blonde Alice Harris, 18, daughter of Phil Harris and Alice Faye, is honeymooning today with S. Ted Alcus III, 25, son of a New Orleans stock broker.

The couple was wedded Tuesday in Christ Episcopal Church by the Rev. Harry Finkenstaedt Jr., Alcus' minister from New Orleans.

Suburban Housewife Must Become Jill-of-all-Trades

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Whatever happened to the jack-of-all-trades?

In our pioneer past practically every frontier settler had to battle the wilderness almost single-handed. He had to be a man of many talents to survive.

As time passed and our civilization grew more complex, the original pioneer American jack-of-all-trades tended to vanish from the scene. Men learned to specialize in a single craft or art.

But the tradition of the jack-of-all-trades endured and was kept alive by a new fellow on the scene—the general handy man.

Every community had at least one, and usually several.

The handy man wasn't exactly looked up to by his neighbors. He was characteristically a rugged individualist who didn't like the idea of settling down to one job or one boss—or even one wife.

He was a colorful character who prized his own freedom, worked only when he wanted to, and often was strongly addicted to chawin' terbaccer and bottled grain.

But whenever he dropped by sober and knocked on the back door, the general handy man was welcome in most households. They needed his skills. For a dollar or so, a meal or two, and maybe an old coat or pair of pants, he would cut the lawn, carry out the ashes, beat the rugs, fix a leaky roof or mend a drain pipe.

Whatever chore had to be done, he could find a way to do it. And he had one unbeatable virtue—it didn't cost much to hire him.

That old-fashioned type of handy man is almost impossible to find nowadays.

The new type of handy man is also difficult to find now—and he is a completely different kind of character. He is usually married, industrious, busy as a beehive—and almost as businesslike as a banker. In fact he is a one-man industry.

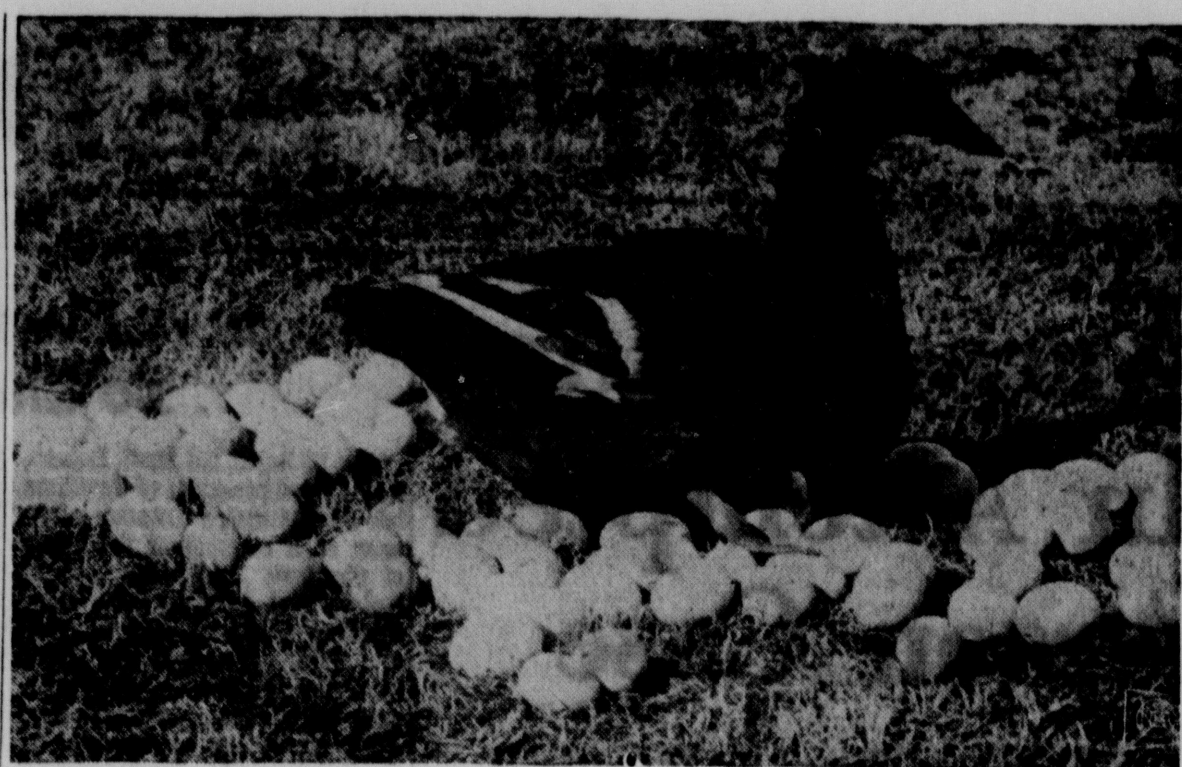

An experienced general handy man can earn from $150 to $200 a week or more in some areas—and does.

His high cost and unavailability when needed in an emergency has resulted in the rise of a completely new jack-of-all-trades—the suburban housewife.

Necessity has made her a jill-of-all-trades.

In America's burgeoning suburbs today there are thousands of housewives who can outdo the pioneer mothers of yore in many ways.

They don't make soap or help fight off the Indians. But many of them can handle

THE FERTILE MALLARD—Biddie, a wild mallard, stands on just part of her laurels in Memphis, Tenn. She laid 81 eggs in 81 days for her 11-year-old master, Don High. Since most ducks lay at most 15 eggs and then quit, Biddie is quite a feathered curiosity among poultrymen, especially when they discover that she eats dog food regularly.

minor plumbing jobs, put up wallpaper, paint a house, fix a broken vacuum cleaner, rewire a floor lamp—and do 1,001 other things necessary to keep a home in order.

Smart husbands encourage these new jills-of-all-trades to learn as many skills as possible. And for a very good reason.

Mrs. O. DeWolf Hosts Meeting Of Garden Club

Garden Club No. 5 met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Oscar H. DeWolf, 1115 West Broadway, with Mrs. Herbert Mason and Mrs. G. E. Mahin, assisting hostesses. A dessert course was served to 15 members and three guests.

Mrs. R. S. Haggard, president, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. DeWolf announced the Past Presidents Club would meet Friday at 1:30 p.m. in the Palm Room, Hotel Bothwell.

Awards were presented at the meeting to Mrs. P. L. Strole for having received the most points in both exhibits and horticulture during the past year.

The exhibits committee announced the following awards: "Hearts and Flowers," first, Mrs. Fred Wertz; second, Mrs. Oscar H. DeWolf; third, Mrs. P. L. Strole. Horticulture, blooming plant, first, Mrs. Oscar H. DeWolf; second, Mrs. R. S. Haggard; third, Mrs. Fred Wertz.

Mrs. Mary O. Neighbors introduced the two guest speakers for the afternoon, Chester Vermaas, from the Missouri Conservation Commission, and Otis Thornburn of Warrensburg, field agent. Colored slides of both wild and song birds were shown. The speakers told facts regarding the feeding and nesting habits of the various birds and in what region each kind might be found.

Members who had access to farm land were urged to consider the preparation of a food plot. A quarter of an acre of ground in close to cover may be planted with a small amount of grain at a reasonable cost. This should be planted by May and will make an excellent spot in which to conserve wild life.

Also discussed was the prairie chicken and how it is being restocked in hopes that Missouri can again have this bird in plentiful numbers.

Put Do-It-Yourself Attitude to Streets

PIKEVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Suda Weddington got fast action when she appeared before city officials to complain the street in front of her house was dirty. They gave her a broom, explaining the street budget was limited.

In the absence of Mrs. Don Anderson, president, Mrs. H. E. Lindstrom presided over a short business meeting.

Awards in the exhibit, "Hearts and Flowers," Mrs. Lindstrom received first, Mrs. P. C. Owen, second and in horticulture, Mrs. E. C. Thompson and Mrs. Frank Armstrong tied for first with Mrs. Crutcher second.

A dessert luncheon was served preceding the meeting to 19 members. Mrs. Harold Dean and Mrs. H. C. Johnson were co-hostesses with Mrs. Crutcher.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Leonard Corson, 2511 Anderson, Southwest Village.

Double Efforts To Nab Joplin Dog Poisoners

JOPLIN, Mo. (AP)—Police of Joplin and nearby Webb City are redoubling their efforts to catch the dog poisoner who has killed about 17 dogs and cats in the last four months.

Several gum drops containing strychnine were found Tuesday night in the yard of the Dorcie Martin home in Webb City. Martin owns two dogs.

It was the first positive lead the police have obtained on the method of poisoning. Roy Isgrigg, Joplin police chief, said poisoned candy was a great danger to children.

County Home Economists In Meeting

Miss Charlene Lindsey, Columbia, president of the Missouri Home Economists Association, was the speaker at the dinner meeting of the Pettis County Home Economists Association held Monday night at Flat Creek Inn. The dinner was in observance of National Home Economists Week.

Mrs. Albert Moore was elected chairman of the Pettis County Association for 1961-62, and Mrs. Louise McKee was elected secretary. The names were presented by Mrs. Eugene Viets, chairman of the nominating committee.

Miss Lindsey is state 4-H club agent and on the Extension staff at the University of Missouri. "Measuring Up Professionally," was the subject she chose to talk on and was directed particularly at the prospective home economists who were guests at the meeting. She pointed out that the field of the home economist offered a wonderful career for girls, and was a great help in the role of homemaker.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Mary Maddox, chairman, with invocation by Mrs. Hubert Finley.

Those attending were: Mrs. Ralph Van Der Kamp, Mrs. Eugene Viets, Judy Inglish, Judy Weseloh, Louetta Schnakenberg, Frances Moran, Bonita Kay Evans, Sara Gayle Oswald, Mary Maddox, Mrs. Rosalie Smith, Barbara Raines, Mrs. Albert Baumgardner, Mrs. Hubert Finley, Mrs. Albert Moore, Carolyn Oehrke, Glenda Teter, and Mrs. William G. Green.

The valentine theme was used in the decorations.

Manager Reports Change in Name Of Sedalia Firm

The name of the Western Adjustment and Inspection Co., which has an office in the Securities Building at 1806 W. Eleventh, has been changed to General Adjustment Bureau, Inc., W. E. Wilson, manager of the office here, said today.

The Western Adjustment and Inspection Co. and General Adjustment Bureau, Inc., were merged in May of 1959, Wilson said.

The merger united the two national loss and claim adjusting organizations owned by nearly 300 capital stock fire and casualty insurance companies into a single organization. General Adjustment Bureau, Inc. has 671 branch offices throughout the United States with a staff of more than 3600 adjusters. The bureau plays a major roll in adjusting losses from catastrophes, as well as day-to-day adjusting of losses. It recently set up special offices to handle many thousands of losses from Hurricane Donna on the east coast from Florida to New England.

The Sedalia office, which is in the western department, services six counties surrounding Pettis County.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®.

At all drug counters.

Missouri Can Show You...

NEW MARK TWAIN SHRINE
Florida, Mo.

Poised on its river bluff in Mark Twain State Park, its sweeping roof outspread like the wings of a soaring bird, the new Mark Twain Memorial shrine ably exemplifies the author's liking for the modern and extraordinary.

The building shelters the modest, one-story frame house in which Twain was born as Samuel L. Clemens in 1835 in the then-busy town of Florida. Exhibits include furniture from his later home, "Stormfield"; his carriage, and the first published manuscript of The Adventures of Tom Sawyer with notes by Twain and by his friend and fellow author, William Dean Howells.

Missouri can show you a rich and fascinating history in many fields. Since 1810, for instance, Brewing has been an important Missouri industry—and today "Beer Belongs" throughout the state. The United States Brewers Foundation, working in cooperation with all who sell beer and with public authorities, conducts a program designed to assure the sale of beer under orderly wholesome conditions.

Value of Public Notice

Beginning with this issue, this newspaper will carry at intervals a column in the public interest called "Little Chats On Public Notice."

The column is written by James E. Pollard, a former newspaperman, director of the Ohio State University School of Journalism from 1934 to 1958, and a student of newspaper law.

Pollard's column is meant for every citizen as it is about a fundamental right of every citizen, the right to be put on notice about matters affecting him or his property, a part of the citizen's broader constitutional right of due process of law.

You have been reading public notices in this newspaper for many years. Oftime, public notices are referred to as "legal notices" or "legal advertising." These are the notices which inform citizens of elections, acts, ordinances, rules, sale bids, expenditures and official reports, and other governmental matters.

As Pollard says in his first column, "The purpose of being put on notice is twofold: (1) To inform the individual or others concerned as to some contemplated action that concerns their rights, and (2) to enable them to take whatever steps they deem necessary to protect those rights."

There is no better way to make notices public than through publication in a newspaper. Take for instance such cases as mortgage foreclosure sales, sheriff's sales, sales of land for delinquent taxes and so on. The citizens who have a vital interest in the properties have the right to be informed about their disposition.

Non-resident owners are notified by mail to their last known post office, but it often is impractical to conduct a thorough search for them and the notice often fails of delivery.

However, friends and relatives living in the community or county in which the sale is to take place, upon seeing a notice to that effect in newspapers, take the responsibility upon themselves of informing the interested non-resident parties.

Then, too, newspapers have a way of traveling around the country that gets them into the far corners of every state and nation. Like a letter from home, they are read eagerly ly and minutely by those who are far away from their former neighborhoods.

What better way is there, under such conditions, to convey an important notice to people who have the right to be informed?

Also, parties not directly concerned in a legal action also may be entitled to notice in those cases where their welfare is affected. It is impossible to predict how many people will be interested in one way or another in any legal action. The general public therefore, must be given an equal chance to get the information along with those persons directly named in the legal document.

Other public notices are dictated by custom now established that every person who receives or expends public moneys should give an accounting of the funds he handles by a published statement at periodic intervals.

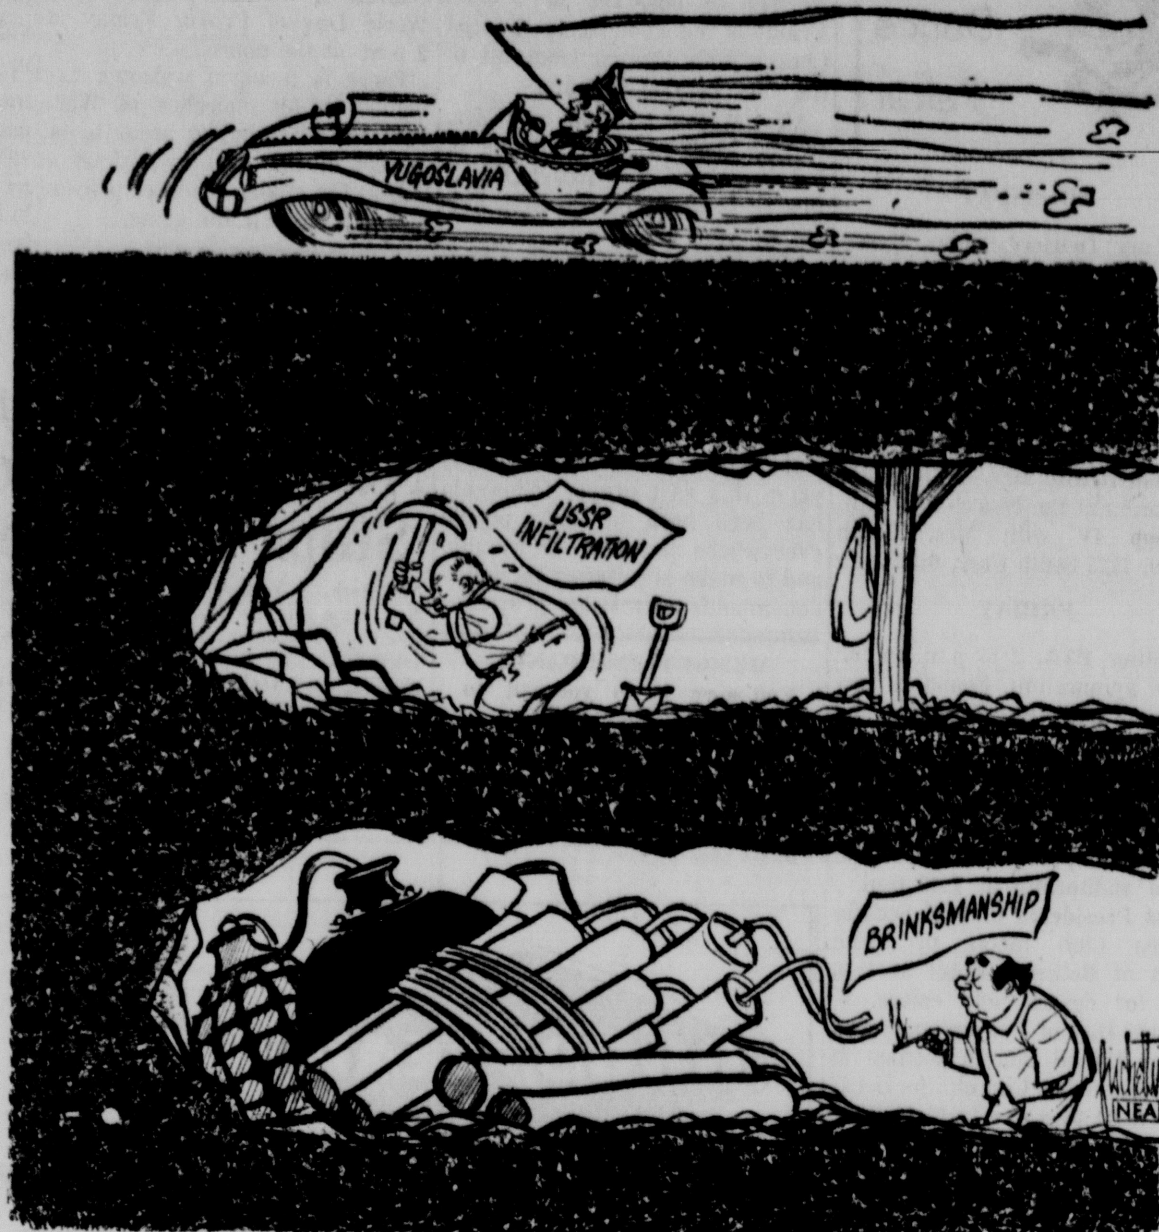

Good examples of this kind of public notice is the county financial statement and periodic financial statements of city government which are required by statute to be published.

Honest public officials heartily acclaim the published statement in a newspaper as the best and most practical way to show their constituents that they have exercised good business acumen in the handling of funds entrusted to them.

There is an old saying that every business transaction of any size should be recorded in writing because "An honest man won't hesitate to sign his name, and a dishonest man is the one from whom you need written proof."

Honest officials gladly seize the opportunity to render a public statement of their acts to show the efficiency, honesty and good judgment they have exercised. Dishonest officials, while they may oppose the American way, in the end can be apprehended by the same public notice which proves so beneficial to the worthwhile office-holder.

We hope the columns by Pollard will help our readers better understand their right of public notice. The "Little Chats" not only tell interesting facts about the importance of public notices, but they also reveal some of the inside workings of government in a democracy like the United States where freedom is everybody's business.

The World Today

Nikita May Be the Last Train Home

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's no wonder President Kennedy is giving so much time and thought to dealing with Premier Khrushchev. The chubby Russian may be the last train home.

There will be nothing to look forward to except intensified and more dangerous cold war if this country and Russia don't find some common and amicable ground upon which to do business.

Khrushchev won't be around indefinitely. Unless in his lifetime some peaceful settlements are reached, the Communist world, particularly the Red Chinese, can consider his peaceful coexistence policy repudiated.

The logical alternative to that is a return to the aggressions of Stalin.

Khrushchev may be repudiated by his own followers even in his own lifetime unless his pursuit of peaceful coexistence can be realized in some demonstrable way. His Chinese allies think he is wrong and have said so.

In a way Khrushchev has been a political freak. The only kind of communism the world knew until Stalin died in 1953 was Stalin's kind—cold, more or less inarticulate, and unimaginative.

It was unimaginative in a very real sense. Stalin relied on the primitive use of force. He ignored the more modern weapons of propaganda, visits abroad, and foreign aid to influence other peoples.

Khrushchev not only denounced Stalin but made the complete switch by drawing a peaceful picture of Russia while using all the modern public relations methods available, the ones Stalin didn't try.

What Stalin and Khrushchev retained in common, as Kennedy pointed out in his State of the Union message, was a determination to make communism prevail.

One basic difference remained. It was impossible to reach peaceful solutions with Stalin; it might be possible with Khrushchev. Kennedy has made it clear he will ignore no effort toward doing so.

Khrushchev sits and waits until Kennedy makes up his mind on what he'll do and how.

But just because Khrushchev may be the last chance in a generation for some peaceful solutions, Kennedy almost certainly will be glad to talk with him if the Russian comes to this country in April for a United Nations meeting.

Kennedy hasn't even indicated yet that he will. At the moment his policy is to say practically nothing about Khrushchev or Russia. But he has said "each day the crises multiply."

Since he spoke they've become worse. For example, the killing of Patrice Lumumba in the Congo. One of Kennedy's most critical problems is one which may lie beyond his control. While he ponders the course to take in seeking settlements with Khrushchev, the possibility of settlements may be made even more remote by explosions, like the Congo, in areas far distant from both Russia and the United States.

We, the Women

Work Savers Are Tops In World of Collectors

RUTH MILLETT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Most women are savers of one kind or another.

Some women are recipe savers. They continually cut out recipes they intend to try "some day." But while the exotic recipes pile up in a kitchen drawer the recipe saver usually goes right on cooking the same old meals in the same old way.

Some women are box and wrapper savers. They can't bear to throw away a box, a pretty bow, or a piece of gift wrapping paper. With them the wrapping is almost as important as the gift inside.

Some women save old clothes. Overhauling their wardrobes isn't a question of getting rid of the clothes they can no longer wear but of moving them from closet to attic trunk. They are convinced that someday they will find a use for these put-aside articles of clothing but usually all they do is provide a feast for the moths.

Some women save only things of sentimental value. They have every gift their children ever gave them, including handmade calendars and pot holders. They save birthday cards and love letters and faded photographs and old menus and newspaper clippings. Their treasures would mean nothing to anyone else—but to the savers they are too precious to part with.

Some women are money savers. These aren't to be confused with good managers.

A real "money saver" is one who enjoys what she saves on a purchase even more than the purchase itself. When she gloats, "I got it for half price," it's the half-price that is really important. (Funny thing is the money saver often spends more than her sister simply because she can't resist a bargain.)

But the most practical women of all are the work savers—who rarely save anything that isn't immediately useful, because the more they can streamline their possessions the more work they save themselves.

The Doctor Says

Easter Seal Drive Affords You Chance to 'Feed Three'

By Harold Thomas Hyman, M.D.
Written for

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

On several occasions, I've commented on the remarkable quality of the letters I receive from readers. But, at this moment of writing, "my cup runneth over."

Some time ago, I asked for help in locating the quotation "He, who giveth, giveth three." I was sure it was biblical but neither my clergymen friends nor my good wife could find it though we searched through all the standards books of reference. And I wanted very much to trace it to its source for the particular purpose of suggesting its message to the army of self-centered neurotics.

Well, from all over the continent I've gotten the information I sought. And more. "The quotation to which you referred," writes an Oklahoman, "is from James Russell Lowell's 'Vision of Sir Launfal' wherein Christ is depicted as saying:

"Not what we give, but what we share,
For the gift without the giver is bare;
Who gives himself with his alms feeds three,
Himself, his hungry neighbor, and me."

"I learned many verses of this lovely poem over 50 years ago," says a Californian, "and can still quote them. Especially at the Christmas season, I think of them many times."

(A reminder also came from Mrs. Alvin E. Phillips, Florence, Mo., a Capital reader.)

Well, it's sort of late to bring these inspiring verses as a Christmas thought to the "First Person Singulars." But how about applying its lesson when you receive the Easter Seal appeal of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc.? This nonprofit organization has branches in every state, headquarters at 2323 West Ogden Ave., Chicago 12, Ill.

In its 235 treatment centers, 13 rehabilitation centers, 5 residential centers for in-patients, 27 sheltered workshops, 45 mobile units, 87 summer camps, 232 loan pools, 51 resident camps, 83 day camps and its other facilities, it treated 236,401 patients, most of them children, in the last year. LITTLE LIZ

NEW FRONTIERS in Religion

1. The God of New Frontiers

By J. CARTER SWAIM
Executive Director of the Department of the English Bible,
National Council of Churches

In a word-association game we are required to set down the first word which comes to mind when another word is spoken. Thus "cup" would suggest "saucer" and "table" would suggest "chair." Psychologists believe that word-association tests can reveal a great deal about character. If "horse" suggests "buggy," that

Dr. Swaim may mean we have the disposition which longs for the good old days. If, on the other hand, our instant response to "horse" is "racetrack" or "jockey" or "tote machine," then that tells something else about us!

It is probable that "God" is not the first word that comes into many minds when the word "Frontier" is mentioned. To the readers of fiction, "Frontier" might suggest Deadeye Dick or Crimson Gulch. To students of history, "Frontier" might suggest "wilderness" or "gold rush" or Daniel Boone. To scientists, "Frontier" these days might bring to mind "outer space" or "satellite" or "amino acid."

Not even church people are apt to associate "God" with "Frontier." Yet if we read the Bible as we ought, that is a word association that would be inevitable. The God of the Bible is the God of the New Frontier, ever summoning people to untold ventures, ever urging them to move on higher planes.

Abraham Lived long ago in Ur of the Chaldees. Bible history begins when God makes Abraham discontented with things as they are. A great era in American history is suggested by John Soule's saying, popularized by Horace Greeley, "Go West, young man and grow up with the country." Centuries before that, "The Lord said to Abram, 'Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. And I will make of you a great nation.'" (Genesis 12:1)

A New Testament letter recounts Abraham's prompt response: "he went out, not knowing where he was to go" (Hebrews 11:8). Unhappily, not all of Abraham's kinsmen were willing to accompany him upon this high adventure. Some wanted to settle in a wicked place called Sodom. Abraham knew they must press on before this place should be destroyed. To this day, "a continually smoking wasteland" bears witness to what transpired. But Lot's wife, no pioneer, looked longingly back, "and she became a pillar of salt" (Genesis 19:26).

To those in his own time who thought the good old days were in the past, Jesus said: "Remember Lot's Wife" (Luke 17:32). For the Hebrews, new frontiers were to be approached with eager reverence, and Joshua 22:1 relates how "the Reubenites and Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built an altar at the frontier of the land of Canaan."

Genesis tells how Abraham willingly left the cities of the past,

The Letter to Hebrews says "he looked forward to the city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God" (Hebrews 11:10). The last book in the Bible pictures that dream city. On its throne is one who says, "Behold I make all things new" (Revelation 21:5). The word "Frontiers" ought always to bring to mind the God of Frontiers and the Frontiersman's God.

LITTLE CHATS ON PUBLIC NOTICE

by
JAMES E. POLLARD

To Be Put on Notice

Sometimes after a thing has been done, an interested party complains, "But they didn't tell me." If his complaint is justified it may or may not be too late to remedy the matter. In effect, however, the trouble was that he was not given due notice.

In the truly democratic countries an important legal principle is involved in the fundamental right "to be put on notice." This is true for the individual, as well as for business and other interests and for the community at large. Only the dictator countries restrict or deny this basic right to be put on notice.

The purpose of being put on notice is twofold: (1) To inform the individual or others concerned as to some contemplated action that concerns their rights, and (2) to enable them to take whatever steps they deem necessary to protect those rights.

As is pretty well known there are various ways of being put on notice. One is by personal service or direct notice. Another is by posting in a public place, and a third is by actual publication. This last is usually done in a bona fide local newspaper of paid general circulation.

With the rapid growth of population and the complexity of modern living, personal service is not always feasible or is too costly where numbers of people are concerned. In such circumstances the bona fide newspaper is an effective medium. It is not accident that in thousands of situations, the law provides specifically for this method of giving notice.

matter of FACT

"There was an old woman who lived in a shoe. She had so many children she didn't know what to do." That almost describes Elizabeth Foster who married a widower named Isaac Goose with 10 children. She had 10 children of her own. Fortunately, Elizabeth Foster Goose knew what to do. She sang the children songs later published as "Songs of the Nursery." These were the Mother Goose Rhymes.

Education Aid Program Faces Fight

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — No program proposed by President Kennedy is going to be heckled and hammered harder than the five billion dollar school program he submits to Congress, yet none is more vital to the future of the United States. Chief enemies of the program will be:

1. Kennedy's own church. Cardinal Spellman, once the great friend of the Kennedy family, but Kennedy's subtle opponent last fall, has already denounced publicly the President's plan for Federal aid to education.

2. The U. S. Chamber of Commerce, which when a much more modest school program was being debated, officially testified: "Such proposals as H.R. 1 seem to us the most dangerous of all Federal aid proposals. Our investigation indicates that no national shortage in classrooms has been or can be demonstrated to exist."

3. The Halleck-Smith Dixiecrat-GOP alliance in Congress which almost defeated Kennedy on the Rules Committee battle and which has defeated aid to education in the past.

Note — The fact that the new President has come out less than one month after assuming office with a courageous comprehensive school aid program, despite the opposition of most leaders of his own church, should be noted by critics who last fall predicted sorrowfully the end of separation of church and state.

The Education Gap
There's been a lot of debate about the narrowing of the missile gap between the USA and the USSR. Regarding the education gap, however, the facts are fairly clear. The United States is still ahead of Russia.

What's to be considered, however, is the amazing fact that in a few short years, the USSR has switched from a nation which was 75 per cent illiterate under the czar to a nation which is about 99 per cent literate under the Soviet. If this rate of speed continues, there may be no education gap between the United States and Russia.

Yet it has been extremely difficult to arouse a lethargic Congress and a complacent Eisenhower administration regarding this danger. The men who did most to wake them up are: Ex-Sen Bill Benton of Connecticut who came back from Moscow five years ago to warn: "Russian education is a bigger threat than the hydrogen bomb."

John A. Kennedy, publisher of the Sioux Falls (S.D.) Argus-Leader, who came back from Russia about the same time to warn Congress: "The battle of Waterloo was won on the playing fields of Eton. The battle of survival for the West is being lost in the high schools of America. . . . Russia's ten-year primary-high school educational system has become perhaps the toughest secondary scholastic system in the world."

Dr. Lawrence G. Dertchick, U. S. Commissioner of Education who came back from Russia to report officially: "What we have seen has amazed us in one outstanding particular: We were simply not prepared for the degree to which the USSR is committed to education as a means of national advancement. . . . We came back convinced that we as a nation cannot afford to disregard the challenge imposed on us by the Russian race for knowledge."

Eight Years of Complacency
The inside story of how for eight years the Eisenhower administration ignored these warnings will probably be recorded by historians as one of the most tragic of that period.

As President of Columbia University, great things were expected of Ike by the educational world.

But each time an educational bill was on the verge of passing Congress, word came from the White House to kill it.

In the 1957 fight over aid to education, Ike's then Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, Marion B. Folsom, announced confidently that the President would throw his weight behind the bill. Folsom was a sincere believer in aid to education and believed in the official position taken by the President.

He was called to the White House and reprimanded for putting Eisenhower on the spot. And in order to save the President from being asked embarrassing questions about Folsom's remark, the White House press conference was canceled. This, incidentally, was one reason Folsom resigned.

Again just before the House was scheduled to vote on aid-to-education, the White House carefully held up publication of a special report by the President's committee on education beyond the high school. It was scheduled for publication July 21. The vote was due in the House on July 25.

The report, written by a conservative committee headed by Devereaux Josephs, chairman of the New York Life Insurance Company, showed an alarming lag in American education. So the White House canceled publication until after the House of Representatives voted — and by a margin of only five votes killed aid to education.

That's part of the history of the past eight years. The history of education in the next four years remains to be seen. But at least it's off to a courageous start.

A new electronic larynx, developed by the Bell Telephone System, has been introduced for use by persons without the power of speech because of paralysis or surgical removal of the vocal chords.

Think It Through

By E. F. HUTTON

A REMARKABLE JUDGE—Judge A. J. Jolly of Campbell County, Kentucky, is worth your knowing. On the front of the Bench in his courtroom, he has hung a copy of one of the oldest law codes in the world. It is the Ten Commandments. It is there to be read by lawyers, jurors, witnesses, newspaper reporters and the public.

By implication, it says that it is also the law which governs Judge Jolly himself. Not that he is a religious crank who claims that the Ten Commandments are all the law that is enforced in his Court. Of course not. There have to be statutes telling when Court sits, when elections take place and thousands of other rules necessary to the functioning of the complicated civilization in which we live.

Judge Jolly would never ask Moses to take the time to carve all of today's rules and regulations on tablets of stone! But to him, the Ten Commandments are the foundations upon which civilized men should build and live.

I commend his idea to all judges in all courts, and to Bar Associations everywhere. I even think the Supreme Court of the United States would gain respect and honor if the Ten Commandments hung on the wall of its august Courtroom.

The Ten Commandments prescribe no penalties for breaking them. But they appeal to the greatest power that governs civilized men—conscience.

It is only when men voluntarily "obey the unenforceable" that anything is safe.

Looking Backward...

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Much interest is being manifest in the new Russell Brothers Clothing store which will open in Sedalia about March 1. Mr. H. H. Russell is enthusiastic about the way things are working out to provide the community with a beautiful new and modern store.

R. R. Jiedel, owner of The Vogue Shop fractured two upper right ribs in a fall on an icy sidewalk on Ohio avenue.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Mrs. Nora Lee Warren Melton was appointed by Governor Arthur M. Hyde as circuit clerk of Pettis county to fill the unexpired term of her late husband, Thomas R. Melton which will end Jan. 1, 1923. Mrs. Melton was endorsed by the Republican county committee.

JFK Wants Modernization Of Industrial Equipment

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The new accent on youth may soon extend from the White House right into the machinery in our factories.

President Kennedy says too much of our industrial equipment is too old. He wants business to speed up the modernization of its plant. He says the government will help.

"The average age of equipment in American factories today is about nine years," the President says. "In a dynamic economy that average should be falling, as new equipment is put into place. Instead, the available evidence suggests that it has been slowly rising."

He has renewed his pledge of quickly seeking tax reform to help business update its plants.

The President has still to spell out exactly what tax changes. But business interprets them to be largely in the field of depreciation allowances. Many business spokesmen have deplored present tax policy as holding back building of new plants and buying the late equipment. This keeps operating costs higher here and helps make American prices higher than those of foreign manufacturers.

President Kennedy agrees that we have fallen behind in the competitive race. He notes that other nations have been lowering the average age of their plants and machinery. He names as an example West Germany, where at least two-fifths of the plant and equipment is under five years of age.

Other lands allow faster write-off of new investment in tax accounting. Some allow revaluation of assets in recognition of higher replacement costs. This lowers corporate tax payments and gives companies more funds with which to buy new equipment.

The United States has granted fast write-offs for some plants and equipment held essential for national defense. But in the main its policies still hold to a standard which, though varied, averages around 20 years. That is, the life of much machinery is held to be 20 years. Companies spread depreciation allowances over 20 years.

They complain that they can't replace the old plant and tools for anything like what they cost—that is, for anything like the total of their depreciation allowances.

To buy new equipment they must find money somewhere—by raising prices to boost profits, by borrowing.

Many insist that this is keeping them from modernizing their plants. This has cut the totals spent on capital goods in the last year, and that has been a factor in the downturn in general business activity.

There are two tax reforms the President could propose.

One would speed up the time in which a new machine could be depreciated for tax purposes—five years, say instead of 20. This would give companies temporary relief. After the five years the machine would be fully taxable as an asset and its production taxable as income without benefit of allowances. But there would be an incentive to buy still newer equipment.

The other would be to let companies value their present machinery at replacement cost instead of its much lower cost at time of purchase. This would grant a longer-range relief.

Westerns Big Sensation In Jap Theaters

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

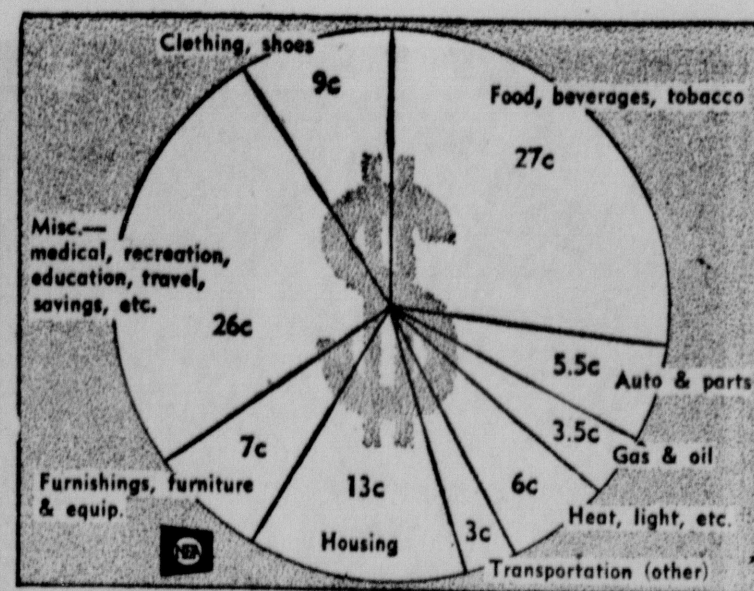

TOKYO (AP) — Hi-yo, Yama-mato!

The latest sensation in the Japanese film world is the Western—a real, live horse opera with shoot-outs and chases. Only the cowpokes are Japanese.

Home of the new wave of Westerns is Nikkatsu Studio, a bustling lot amid rice paddies. It is to the Japanese film industry what Republic was in the Autry-Rogers era. Specializing in action movies, Nikkatsu released 25 Westerns last year.

Riding tall (5 feet 9) in the saddle during the Western craze is Akira Kobayashi. A trim, good-looking 24-year-old, he is billed as milt guy, or dynamite guy. He started in films five years ago, became a star in 1958 with "Forget Girls."

The star lives in a modest home in Tokyo's Tagamura district with his parents, sister, brother, white Thunderbird and Doberman Pinscher. He talked about his career over tea in his den, decorated with his awards and trophies and dolls from fans. How did he get started with Westerns?

"When I went to the country areas," said the Tokyo-born actor, "I found the people didn't understand the imported Westerns. I thought I would give them a Japanese version."

Last year Akira made 10 Westerns, along with five others. He has little time for anything else, grinding out a film every 25 days.

grating bird. This bird, like the cowboys in the American Westerns of yore, is never permitted to kiss the girl.

"I am supposed to play a lonely man with no sweethearts," he said in translated English. "Often I rescue the beautiful girl and she has affection for me, but I must shun her."

Akira has studied the American stars for their walks, draws, etc. His own draw is lightning-fast. He prizes his gun collection—tools, since Japanese law forbids the real kind.

He makes his films partly at the studio, partly on location in northern Japan, where the desolate areas resemble the American West. Would he like to try Hollywood?

"There is no demand for me there," he said realistically. "Even if there were, I would have no desire to go there permanently." In view of his salary on the Nippon range, why should he?

Central Missouri's Largest Animal Health Pharmacy

QUALITY PRODUCTS AND THE TRUTH ABOUT THEM

Pennies saved are important to our customers BUT NOT important enough to cause us to down-grade quality. Price is not important enough to lead us into ignorant and false claims.

Our customers have the right to vaccinate and treat their livestock. In fact, our Colleges of Agriculture have stressed the importance of this phase of Farming for many years. It is very vital to the economy of our nation. Have you read the figures recently of how many calves and pigs die before reaching maturity?

Our employees have had the advantage of personal instructions in the fundamentals of prevention and treatment, plus years of experience.

We know the product that will be the most specific for you to use. We know when, how and how much of it to use.

We know the importance of proper refrigeration and care to insure full potency of biologicals and antibiotics.

Animal Health Pharmacy is very important to us... It is both our privilege and obligation to serve you well.

Defeat Owls

Tigers Win 14th Game of Season

A relentless scoring drive by Smith-Cotton's Tim Morgan led the Tigers to a 77-67 non-conference victory over the Marshall Owls at Smith-Cotton Tuesday night—the 14th Tiger win this season. Morgan's sensational scoring splurge, netting 38 points, most of them in the first half, gave the Tigers a 45-34 edge at intermission.

The first half actually decided the game for the Tigers. The scoring wasn't quite as active in the second half, and the Tigers were outscored in that half by Marshall's Owls, 33-32. But it was far from enough.

Morgan collected his 38 points in three quarters of play—29 of

Ray Gordon Headlines Mat Card

Burly Ray Gordon, the crack-jack New Zealand speedster who streaked across the European wrestling horizon like a comet, hopes to continue his rise to the top nationally when he collides with one of the now famed medics to headline the card at Convention Hall next Tuesday night.

Ray Gordon

There will be three other events, including one of the most unusual ever offered here.

A women's scrap, matching tough Peggy King against equally rugged Penny Banner, is on tap. So is an expected rugged set-to between two Hennings, John Paul and Lee the Bulldog. They are not related. They're not even on friendly terms.

The novel affair that should prove to be one of the most off-beat mat events ever offered matches Happy Humphrey against one of the masked Medics. The front handle of Humphrey implies he's a jolly sort—and he is. He has to have a sense of humor. Humphrey tips the scales, when he can find a set big enough, at 720 pounds plus.

The near one-half ton of man-power hails from Paragould, Ark. He's billed as the world's biggest and worst wrestler, but that doesn't bother him in the least. Humphrey is a "man mountain" who's hard to handle. His girth around the middle is 96 inches. It isn't easy to throw him. Happy counters by getting his foe down and then plopping all 720 pounds on him. It's enough to take the breath out of anyone.

Gordon's go against the Medic marks an opportunity for Ray to gain some headway since his return to this area after a stay in Texas. It's expected their pairing will set a wild, rugged pace.

Wake Forest Deacons Kick Up Big Fuss

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

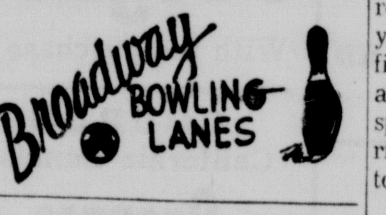

The Wake Forest Deacons, unaccountably unpredictable outside the league, are kicking up such a fuss in Atlantic Coast Conference competition that they may wind up the team to beat when the ACC gets down to selecting its representative for the NCAA basketball championships.

The Deacons, with their big-little pair of Len Chappell and Billy Packer in fine fettle, pushed their ACC regular season record to a handsome 10-3 Tuesday night with a 103-89 whipping of third-ranked Duke. A 61.1 shooting percentage, 38 points by the 6-8, 240-pound Chappell, and 25 by the 5-11, 170-pound Packer did the job against the Blue Devils (17-3), who got a jolt earlier in the day when high-scoring soph Art Heyman was suspended by conference commissioner Jim Weaver for his part in a fight in a North Carolina game Feb. 4.

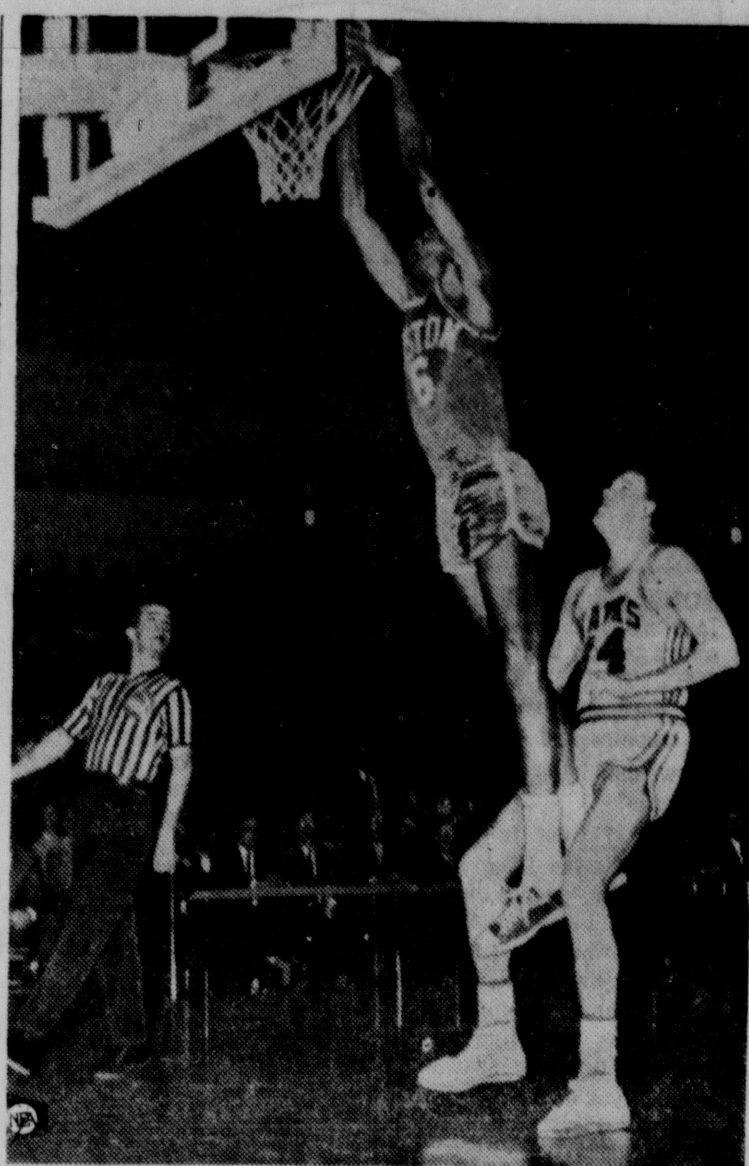

The suspension itself was temporarily suspended by the executive committee, freeing Heyman to play—and score 31 points. But Duke, now 9-2 in the ACC race, couldn't manage a reprieve once the Deacons took the lead midway in the first half.

Wake Forest has one league game remaining—with South Carolina—before the ACC tournament that sends the winner into the NCAA tournament. Before that the Deacons play non-leaguers Villanova, St. Francis (Pa.) and New York U. in an attempt to improve on an outside record that stands at a mediocre 3-5 now.

Fifth-ranked Bradley (17-4) went into overtime to edge Notre Dame 84-81 at Chicago Stadium, tenth-ranked West Virginia (19-3) used its zone press effectively again for its ninth straight victory, 80-78 over Penn State; St. Joseph's (Pa.) (17-4) made it eight straight, 88-73 over Penn; and the Southwest conference developed into its accustomed scramble in other major games.

Eldon Defeats Stover Tuesday In 58-48 Tilt

Eldon defeated Stover Tuesday night 58-48 in a Tri-County Conference basketball clash on the Stover hardwood.

Stover, which sports only a 1-11 record in conference play this year, took a slim lead in the first quarter and was ahead 25-22 at the half, but the third quarter spelled the difference. In that period, Eldon outscored Stover 21-7 to pretty well put things on ice.

Stover made a small comeback in the final stanza and outscored Eldon by one point, but it was far short of the necessary margin.

Eight Eldon cagers got into the scoring column, topped by the 16-point performance of Dinwiddie, the game's high point man. Mulcahy was on his heels with 14.

The Shacklefords, Darrell and Larry, led Stover scoring. Darrell with 14 and Larry with 13.

In the "B" team action, Eldon also won, 37-23. Eldon's Nowack was high point man with 14. De Long's eight points was the best Stover performance.

Stover takes on Smithton Friday night on the Stover court.

The Hubbard elementary school cagers will play a preliminary game at 6:30 p. m.

Sign Jerry Boyce

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis football Cardinals today signed halfback Jerry Boyce of Central Missouri State College as a free agent. The 21-year-old native of Kansas City was an all-MIAA conference selection the last two years.

In two seasons he gained 1,110 yards on 263 carries, 788 yards on 57 pass receptions, 108 yards on 9 pass completions and 484 yards on 27 punt returns. He also scored 11 touchdowns.

Alumni Game Closes Out Cage Season

The Hubbard Tigers will end their basketball season against the Hubbard Alumni this evening at 8 p. m. This will be the last game for Hubbard before they enter regional tournament play next week in Warrensburg.

The Tigers will close the season with a 16-2 record. One loss being in a pre-season tournament in Warsaw and one loss over the regular season of scheduled games to undefeated Malta Bend.

The Alumni will include William Shobe, Walter Murphy, Quince Jones, Robert Crockett, Bernard Herndon and Alvin Jones.

The entire squad of Tigers will see action. The roster includes: E. Johnson, R. Johnson, M. Sims, G. Whitney, L. Cole, E. Holt, E. Wyatt, L. Taylor, L. Rice, N. Buckner, S. Bishop, W. Myles and R. Smith.

Seniors, E. Johnson, L. Cole, M. Sims, E. Wyatt, L. Taylor and S. Bishop will be playing their last home game. The Hubbard drill team and band will present a half time demonstration.

The Hubbard elementary school cagers will play a preliminary game at 6:30 p. m.

Bob Gibson Signs Pact With Cardinals

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Pitcher Bob Gibson has sent his signed 1961 contract to Cardinal General Manager Bing Devine. He will receive an estimated $9,000.

Last year Gibson, a righthander, won three and lost six games for the Redbirds. He's 25 years old and lives in Omaha, Neb. The contract was mailed from Venezuela, where Gibson has been playing winter ball.

He was the 37th Cardinal to sign, leaving only pitchers Larry Jackson and Curt Simmons out of the fold.

Wins Three Dog Shows In 6 Years

NEW YORK (AP)—When Anne Rogers talks about toy dogs, you have to listen.

Miss Rogers, a striking 6-1 brunette from Mahopac, N.Y., broke an ironbound tradition in 1956 when she became the first handler ever to win the Westminster Kennel Club's dog show with a toy.

Until then, the canine shrimps had been virtually orphaned. The judges would take a quick look at the toy group winner and turn his attention to the other finalists.

Just by way of proving the 1956 triumph was no mistake, Miss Rogers repeated in 1959. Tuesday night she made it three in the last six years when she won with Ch. Cappelino Little Sister, a coal-black toy poodle, owned by Florence Michelson of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

"I think," she said today, "that the toy trend shows handlers are getting more interested in the group."

"It actually started before I won in 1956. That just showed that the handlers of the toys had about perfected them. They should win their share from now on."

Miss Rogers ("I refuse to compare my three winners") has been a professional handler 11 years. So it took her only 6 years to go to the top in '56.

As for Little Sister, who weighs in at a cool six pounds:

"She is a complete ham at the shows. She loves every minute of it. In the kennel, she is a complete beatnik until she is washed and trimmed for a show. Then she emerges a lady."

This was Little Sister's third try at the Westminster. She didn't cause any raised eyebrows the first two times.

The other five finalists who paraded before Dr. Joseph E. Redden, a dentist from East Longmeadow, Mass., included:

Ch. White Gables Ristocrat, a smooth dachshund, sent in by Mrs. Albert E. Van Court of Los Angeles, the hound winner.

Ch. Etid Ballet Dancer, a standard poodle, owned by E. E. Ferguson of West Hollywood, Calif., tops in the terrier non-sporting group.

Ch. Blarant Bewitching, a Scottish terrier belonging to Blance E. Reeg of Wantagh, N. Y., the terrier victor.

Francin Colonel Caridas, a parti-color cocker spaniel, entered by Mrs. Clinton Bishop of Collegeville, Pa., the sporting group winner (who completed his championship).

Ch. Marquan Hill's Comanche, a boxer, owned by Mrs. Robert W. Burke of San Rafael, Calif., the working group leader.

Last year's winner, Ch. Chik T. Sun of Caversham, has been retired. Another of the six finalists didn't show up. Of the four who did, only Bewitching made the final.

3-Way Battle Develops In West Division

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A three-way battle is developing for the third playoff spot in the Western Division of the National Basketball Association, while the first-place St. Louis Hawks ride along with a comfortable 12-game lead.

St. Louis edged the second-place Detroit Pistons Tuesday night in the second game of a doubleheader at St. Louis, 135-134 after the Boston Celtics had rocked the Los Angeles Lakers 113-93 in the opener.

The net result was that Los Angeles was left in third place in the West, a game behind Detroit, while the idle Cincinnati Royals are in the fourth spot, another 2½ games behind.

Boston was led by Bob Cousy's 19 points and his accurate shooting helped put the Celtics into a 64-45 halftime lead.

Cliff Hagan's 38 points sparked the Hawks to their seventh victory in 10 meetings with the Pistons.

Versailles Wins Over California Tuesday Night

The Versailles Tigers romped past the California Pintos 82-68 in a Tri-County basketball game played at California Tuesday night. The Pintos are now 13-9 for the season.

The Tigers took a commanding lead in the first half and held on to it for the rest of the game; the Pintos only gained an edge over the Tigers once in the per-quarter scoring, in the final period 23-21. Though it was a good effort, it came too late and was far too small.

Leading point producers for the Pintos was Garry Strickfaden with 24 points, followed by Larry Fletcher with 19. Tankersly, for Versailles, took game scoring honors, however, with his 27-point production. He was followed by Bolton with 14.

In the B game, California whipped Versailles 49-40, with Strother scoring 15 points. High for Versailles were Kauffmann and Kennard, both with eight points.

The Pintos will face Camden-ton's Lakers there Friday night, also in a Tri-County game—the last one for the Pintos this season.

Score by Quarters
Versailles	17	26	18
California	12	16	17
Scoring—California: Garry Strickfaden 24, Larry Fletcher 19, Bob Zimmerman 11, Versailles: Tankersley 27, Bolton 14, Hester 10, Finley 6, McMillan 8, Cable 9, Dornan 8.

Tucson Open Golf Tourney Loses Lustre

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Some of the lustre has been taken from the $20,000 Tucson Open golf tourney, starting Thursday, by the absence of most of the game's big money winners.

Nine of the top 10 money winners of 1960 are passing up this one.

Included in the missing is Arnold Palmer, the reigning glamor boy of golf and winner of this year's Phoenix and San Diego Opens.

So is Doug Sanders, one of the hottest golfers on the circuit who tied Palmer at Phoenix only to lose in Monday's playoff and who finished second to Billy Maxwell at Palm Springs two weeks ago. Maxwell isn't here either.

Neither are Ken Venturi, Dow Finsterwald, Billy Casper, Mike Souchak, Doug Ford, Bill Collins, and Gene Littler.

That leaves only Jay Hebert, the PGA champ. of last year's top 60 as a contender for the Tucson title.

But the field is not without its big names, all of whom are mentioned as threats for the top money of $2,800.

There are former champs Bob Rosburg, Jim Ferrier and Lionel Hebert, who won in Tucson a couple of years ago.

Former U. S. Open title holders Tommy Bolt and Jack Fleik are on hand.

The contenders include two men who have won the British Open, Gary Player of South Africa, and Max Faulkner, of London, England.

Golf Play Expected To Split 6-way Tie

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Thirty-six holes of golf today was expected to split up a six-way tie for the lead in the $10,000 Royal Poinciana Invitational Tournament.

Louise Suggs and five male pros all registered 1-under-par 53s in the first round Tuesday. The Sea Island, Ga., girl's coleaders were Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Chick Harbert of Port St. Lucie, Lew Worsham of Fort Lauderdale and W. A. Pagan and Clyde Usina, both of West Palm Beach.

Sam Snead of Boca Raton and Bobby Cruickshank of nearby Gulfstream shot 54s.

Says Farmers Must Unite By Own Will

PACIFIC GROVE, Calif. (AP)—The president of the American Farm Bureau Federation said Tuesday night the organization does not oppose unionization of farm workers "but it must be done on a voluntary rather than a compulsory collective bargaining basis."

Charles B. Shuman made the observation at the California Farm Bureau Federation's annual county leadership conference.

"Agriculture can best meet the future needs of the nation if farmers are unhampered by labor bosses or government price fixers," Shuman said.

"It is the recognized function of labor organizations to represent workers to improve working conditions and wages. This function is recognized in law with prescribed methods and procedures."

"On the other hand, farmers are permitted to join together in cooperative organizations in order to facilitate their operations for better farming. And, again, this function is recognized in law."

"However, let us recognize that these two functions are incompatible. Methods authorized for labor unions are unworkable when applied to the marketing and pricing of farm products. Such methods and procedures if so used would be in violation of antitrust statutes."

"Farm Bureau, therefore, opposes union attempts to enroll farmers as members of unions, as well as any attempt by unions to bargain for prices, as contrary to the best interests of both farmers and the public."

Film Stylist Thinks Jack Best Dressed

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Is President Kennedy the best dressed chief executive since George Washington?

Movie stylist Sy Devore not only thinks so but believes the youthful president will revolutionize formal wear.

"No one in our time—save the Duke of Windsor when he was Prince of Wales—will be more of a style setter than Mr. Kennedy," Devore said today.

The President's taste in clothes is conservative but always correct, said Devore, who designs wardrobes for many Hollywood fashion plates.

Devore believes the President's greatest sartorial influence will be where it's "needed most—on the youth."

"Too many of the young people have reduced casualness to sloppiness," Devore said. "Mr. Kennedy has had great political impact on youth. I think his clothes will have a similar influence."

The President wears sports clothes only for weekend or country wear, Devore said. On the job, his jackets and trousers match.

The President is a "well-dressed man of the world," Devore said, and there is little chance he will be influenced by the Hollywood trend in men's fashions.

"I look for just the opposite to happen. In fact, it's already happened," Devore said. "Hollywood is notably impressionable and loves to ride with a winner. Watch this town go all out for the white tie and tails for formal wear."

Devore says he has fitted more full dress suits since the Kennedy inauguration than he did during eight years of the Eisenhower administration.

Young Reporter Has Troubles Getting Police

JOPLIN, Mo. (AP)—Jim Ellis, Joplin Globe reporter, wanted to call the police station at Sarcoxie, Mo.

The long distance operator rang a number and a woman answered. "Hello," said Ellis. "Is this the police station?"

"Nope," the woman said, hanging up.

Ellis tried again. This time a man said: "Howdy."

"Who is this?" Ellis asked.

"Sam."

"Is this the police station?"

"Nope."

"Well, where are you?"

"I'm in the public pay phone booth on the square," Sam replied. "I was just walking by and heard the phone ring. What do you know?"

"Nothing," muttered the young reporter, hanging up.

The telephone company said it was all a mistake. Sarcoxie, population 1,100, doesn't have a police station and the city marshal lives in a house, not the phone booth.

Says Traffic Tickets Illegal

BAXTER SPRINGS, Kan. (AP)—The Baxter Springs city attorney told the City Council Tuesday night most of the traffic tickets issued by the police are illegal.

Attorney C. E. Rumery said the only time a Baxter Springs policeman can legally issue a ticket is for overtime parking. He said there are no city ordinances to authorize issuance of tickets for speeding or other violations.

Rumery said the police must have a warrant to arrest a violator and order him into city court or must witness a violation and take the violator immediately to court.

Scout Leader Speaker At Optimist Meet

Robert Thomas, Boy Scout executive of the Lake of the Ozarks Council, was the speaker at the Optimist Club meeting Tuesday noon at Bothwell Hotel.

Thomas pointed out how Scouting tied in closely with the Optimist Club's slogan, "Friend of the Boy." He mentioned, too, the outstanding work being done in Boy Scouting by several members of the Optimist Club. February is Scout month nationally.

You never know what is going to happen with boys. The Boy Scouts is a good citizen and character organization, however, that is just a by-product. Boys do not join for character building, they join for fun. The good citizenship and character building comes naturally.

The boys learn many things in their years of scouting, Thomas said, and there must be adults to help them. In the Twin Forks District, comprising Pettis and Saline Counties, there are 1,000 Boy Scouts and about 400 adults. It takes about one adult to each three boys to have an effective program.

The letters B.S.A., Thomas said, have a meaning. The B stands for building—building good citizens and good character. The S stands for service, service to school, to church, to community. The A stands for achievement, to achieve their goals.

The Boy Scouts in this community receive their money to operate through their churches, the United Fund and gifts from friends.

Thomas was introduced by Ralph Huff, program chairman. The meeting was presided over by Joe Forsee in the absence of the president, Jay Lazerson.

Lee Deason gave the invocation and Charles Hanna led the singing with Miss Lillian Fox at the piano.

Bank Teller Faints, Masked Bandit Flees

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Mrs. Wilma Lewis, teller at the Community State Bank, Tuesday was handed a note reading: "Give me some money."

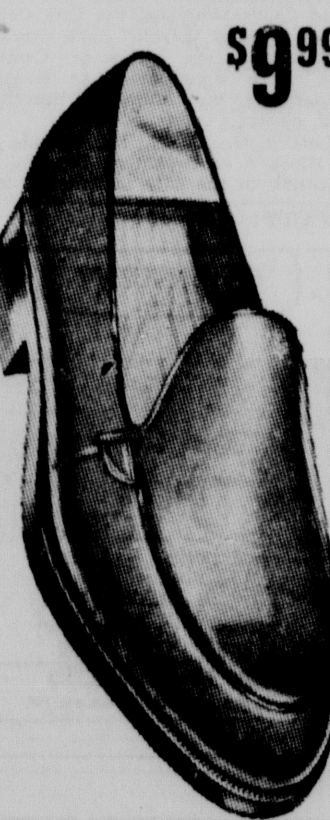

She saw the tall, thin man at her window had a handkerchief around his right hand, pointed at her.

She fainted. The man fled.

FROM THE HEART—The American Heart Assn. reminds us that heart and blood vessel diseases are the leading U.S. public health enemies, accounting for over 50 per cent of deaths. Besides contributing to the local drive, these steps are recommended: 1—Consult your doctor. 2—Control your weight. 3—Get enough rest. 4—Keep physically fit. 5—Ease up and relax.

Millions See Sun Eclipse Over Europe

ROME (AP)—The moon slipped in front of the sun today, producing a spectacular total solar eclipse that was probably watched by more millions than any other in history.

The path of totality—the area directly in the path of the moon's shadow—was in almost complete darkness for more than a minute. Roosters crowed for the second time this morning. Motorists going to work switched on their lights. Stars sparkled.

The 150-mile-wide path of totality fell across southern France, northern Italy, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and the Soviet Union.

At Florence, in the center of the path, hundreds of thousands of persons stood on hillsides surrounding the picturesque city to watch the show.

In Rome, 200 miles from Florence and out of the totality path, a strange half-light held homeowners to switch on lights.

Parisians were more blasé. The eclipse was partial over the French capital but brilliantly apparent through a light morning mist. Along the Champs Elysees a few curious looked up through smoked glasses while hundreds of others walked on to work.

About 60 total eclipses of the sun occur every century, but most are at sea or over remote land areas. Today's came over a heavily populated area, and more millions could see it as a partial eclipse in other areas of Europe, Africa and Asia. A joint television broadcast by European stations carried the show to still more millions.

Reward If Union Men Can Be Tied To Bomb Attack

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Central Labor Union Council has voted $1,000 reward to anyone who can show that a union man was responsible for the bomb attack on Stanton M. Gladden.

Gladden, a battalion fire chief and president of Fire Fighters Union Local 42, was injured by a bomb at his home last Thursday.

Ted Dreher, council president, said the reward wouldn't be paid unless the guilty person is a union man.

Two other reward funds, totaling $5,950, have been offered by the firemen's union and the City Council. Those offers are not conditional.

Chinese New Year Starts Disagreement

NEW YORK (AP)—"Kung-ho Shin-nien."

Or Happy New Year to you. Have a cup of "Dragon's eye" tea.

But is it the Year of the Ox or the Year of the Cow?

The Chinese can't agree. Anyway, it's a great day today in Chinatown—the start of the year 4659 by the Chinese lunar calendar.

Ox or Cow — the celebration started Tuesday night with dancing lions and costumed parades jamming the narrow streets to the accompaniment of firecrackers. Dragons and unicorns will join the festivities today.

Chinese tradition has 12 animals taking turns ruling the lives of the believing—the rat, tiger, rabbit, dragon, snake, horse, goat, monkey, cock, dog, pig and cow or ox.

One celebrating group says it is "going all out for the cow." But a spokesman for the Chinese Consolidated Benevolent Association declares it is the year of the Ox.

It doesn't make much difference, says Chinese Consul General K. W. Yu. He says the Chinese have the same character for both sexes. The year of the Horse might also be the year of the Mare, and so on. The general practice, he added, is to use the male of the species to designate the new year.

So—Happy Ox to you.

Members Ellington Band Face Hearings On Narcotics Charge

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Two members of Duke Ellington's Band face preliminary hearings April 19 on narcotics charges.

Saxophonist Paul Gonsalves, 40, and trumpeter William R. Nance, 41, were arraigned Tuesday on charges of illegal possession of narcotics.

Arraignment was delayed for a third musician, trumpeter John Willie Cook, 36, also arrested with the others in a raid by sheriff's deputies last week.

Holding Men Linked With Holdup Attempt

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Two men are being held in connection with a holdup attempt in which a bandit was killed and a hardware store owner and a clerk were wounded.

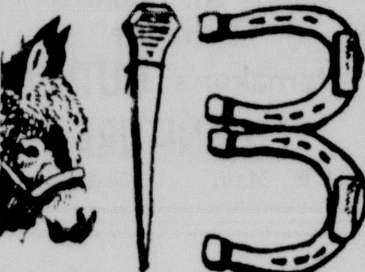

Paul Arthur Bazadier, 27, and Myron Clay Jr., 20, will have a preliminary hearing Feb. 23 on a charge of assault with intent to rob.

Wounded in the gun battle Feb. 9 were Floyd E. Mock, store owner, and James R. Harrison, 59, the clerk.
